

Hi Networkers,

Sorry no time for posh Newsletters this week

Just to update you all on last week's meeting:

We have another 4 new members last week - welcome!

What did we do last week?

We nearly killed but definitely maimed some Scouts at volleyball and had a 3 legged Sumo wrestling competition, then plenty of tea and biccies.

We agreed to go for the Beige polo shirt, which we will get embroidered with "Hornchurch Network", as our official uniform and will be worn on an evening meeting - we may at a later date talk about a more funky group t shirt.

I will arrange for some green "Hornchurch Network" strips to be worn on uniform shirts for those of you who are leaders in other groups.

This week:

We are bringing ideas/designs for our group scarf and hopefully choosing a design over a cup of tea!

I nervously wonder what life threatening games you lot will come up with this week!

Michael Morton has offered to be our Public Relations VIP and Phil (I'm waiting your surname & so on via email - you naughty boy!) as co-treasurer with Jo Luscombe.

Hope you have received the Alton Towers email via my PA - (Hubby) - if not let me know and I will dock his wages and of course send it on to you.

Looking forward to seeing you all on Thursday

Wendy

Network Secretary
